ORIGINAL MOTION PICTURE SOUNDTRACK
Harry Potter
AND THE DEATHLY HALLOWS PART 1
MUSIC COMPOSED AND CONDUCTED BY
ALEXANDRE DESPLAT

Abbey Road on a Friday night. Almost there with the score for Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows – Part 1. Alexandre conducts the London Symphony Orchestra, is one with them, as they are with him. His energy and passion for the work is a joy to watch, and the music is beautiful. In fact, as we recorded one track the other day, Ron Returns, it so enchanted me, and everyone in the control room, I had to offer him the job of writing the music for part two on the spot after hearing it.

Alexandre has brought so many colors and depth to the score for Hallows – Part 1. And he has taken on the challenge of redefining the musical landscape of the world of Potter as we bring the series of films to their climax, with grace, humor, compassion, and empathy for the characters as they go through their difficult transition from children into adults.

- DAVID YATES

Writing the music of a Harry Potter film is quite an experience and an opportunity for a film composer. I am grateful to David Yates, who kindly let me enter and share his visions. His directing, when working closely on the score was meticulous, inspired and demanding, and yet, his personality remained gentle and very strongly positive. Thank you, David for believing that I could bring my million notes into your world of emotions.
